

A brief history...

The Name: The unique name of Fort Massey Church recalls the early years of the garrison town when there was a blockhouse on the site. The fort was named after General Eyre Massey who was commander-in-chief at Halifax from 1776-1780.

The Building: From the Halifax Reporter, 1871: "The interior ... has almost a cathedral appearance. In form and style there is nothing like it in Nova Scotia." From the Canadian Illustrated News, 1873: "...one of the most handsome specimens of Gothic architecture to be met in the Dominion." Opened in 1871, the Scottish architect, David Stirling, made skilful use of Gothic designs with more than a dozen window shapes and sizes and numerous versions of decorative window tracery. Inside there are richly-carved ceiling braces supported by hammer-beams, ornamental kings' heads and bands of trefoil arches punctuated by protruding, small winged creatures which gaze down into the nave below. The church hall with gymnasium was added in 1898, and is shared with numerous community and faith groups.

The Organ: The three manual Casavant organ, installed in 1913, was played by television's first lady of the organ, Diane Bish (Joy of Music) to a full house; and each October the local chapter of the Royal Canadian College of Organists (RCCO) brings together organists and musical guests for an evening of 'frighteningly fine music' at the Phantoms of the Pipes concert!

The People: Fort Massey, along with the majority of Presbyterian churches, joined the Methodists and Congregationalists in the union of The United Church of Canada in 1925. Over the years many notable Haligonians have been affiliated with Fort Massey including Lucy Maud Montgomery (author of Anne of Green Gables), Anna Leonowens (Governess to the King of Siam's children – The King and I musical), and Nova Scotia's reformer Joseph Howe (Premier & Lt. Gov.). Some of the original subscribers included politicians such as Hiram Blanchard, Premier of Nova Scotia in 1867; William Garvie, Member of the Legislative Assembly (MLA) and Commissioner of Public Works; and Sir Robert Boak, President of the Legislative Council and Provincial Treasurer. Other noted subscribers included merchant William Robertson, proprietor of Robertson's Hardware (now part of the Maritime Museum of the Atlantic) and President of the Union Bank; Andrew Muir, who had fought at the Battle of Trafalgar; and Captain J. Taylor Wood, grandson of American President Zachary Taylor.

Today, the congregation consists of long-time south-enders, students, seniors, young families, and new residents who live in the neighbouring buildings, as well as people from throughout the HRM, from Lower Sackville to Eastern Passage. We strive to be a welcoming oasis in the midst of city living.

Welcome to Fort Massey. We extend a special welcome to those who are single, married, divorced, widowed, straight, gay, confused, well-heeled or down at heel. We especially welcome wailing babies and excited toddlers. We welcome you whether you can sing like Pavarotti or just growl quietly to yourself. You're welcome here if you're 'just browsing,' just woken up or just got out of prison. We don't care if you're more Christian than the Moderator of the United Church of Canada, or haven't been to church since Christmas ten years ago. We extend a special welcome to those who are over 60 but not grown up yet, and to teenagers who are growing up too fast. We welcome keep-fit mums, hockey dads, starving artists, tree-huggers, latte-sippers, vegetarians, junk-food eaters. We welcome those who are in recovery or still addicted. We welcome you if you're having problems, are down in the dumps or don't like 'organized religion.' (We're not that keen on it either!) We offer a welcome to those who think the earth is flat, work too hard, don't work, can't spell, or are here because granny is visiting and wanted to come to the ol' Kirk. We welcome those who are inked, pierced, both or neither. We offer a special welcome to those who could use a prayer right now, had religion shoved down their throat as kids or got lost on the Armdale roundabout and wound up here by mistake. We welcome pilgrims, tourists, seekers, doubters... and you! (adapted, used with permission, Coventry Cathedral, England)

We minister together, thanks to your support. Please call or e-mail the church office to contact Ruth MacKenzie for inquiries around financial giving (envelopes/PAR); or Linda MacDonald re serving on a committee.

Our sympathy to the family of Jean Lawley. Jean died July 5th in hospital with family by her side. Funeral Service was held July 11th from Fort Massey. Interment will be held in her beloved Cape Breton.

Our Sunday Spiritual Gatherings will continue on-line while the minister is on vacation, from Aug 2 to Sep 6. The United Church East staff and friends will lead Aug 9 to 30. Jennifer Evans Billard will lead in a Song Service on Aug 2 and Sep 6.

Re-opening Day. Assuming there is no second wave, Fort Massey will re-open its doors on Sunday, Sep 13, for the 10:30 Gathering. Seating is limited to 50 which includes Sunday Church School & Nursery, complying with the NS physical distancing restrictions; and facemasks are recommended. Note that the Services will continue to be recorded and found on our Web page and Facebook page after the in-person gatherings. There will be no Coffee & Conversations.

Happy Birthday to Ian MacDonald (8th) Viola Greer (17th).

- 1 Praise the Lord with the sound of trumpet, VU 245
 praise the Lord with the harp and lute, praise the Lord with the gentle-sounding flute.
Praise the Lord in the field and forest, praise the Lord in the city square,
 praise the Lord anytime and anywhere.
Praise the Lord in the wind and sunshine, praise the Lord in the dark of night, praise the Lord in the rain or snow or in the morning light.
Praise the Lord in the deepest valley, praise the Lord on the highest hill, praise the Lord, never let your voice be still.
- 2 Praise the Lord with the crashing cymbal, praise the Lord with the pipe and string, praise the Lord with the joyful songs you sing.
Praise the Lord on a weekday morning, praise the Lord on a Sunday noon,
 praise the Lord by the light of sun or moon.
Praise the Lord in the time of sorrow, praise the Lord in the time of joy,
 praise the Lord every moment,
 nothing let your praise destroy.
Praise the Lord in the peace and quiet, praise the Lord in your work or play, praise the Lord everywhere in every way!

- 1 Dear Lord, lead me day by day;
make me steadfast, wise, and strong;
happy most of all to know that my dear Lord loves me so.
 Praise to God, fount of love, praise from morn till the set of sun;
 praise at home, praise in church;
 praise to God everywhere on earth.
- 2 Dear Lord, lead me day by day;
make me follow and obey faithfully your words of life, that your love ever abide. R
- 3 Now with confidence I sing joyous praises to our God, and with upright heart I give tender care and sympathy. R
