

A brief history...

The Name: The unique name of Fort Massey Church recalls the early years of the garrison town when there was a blockhouse on the site. The fort was named after General Eyre Massey who was commander-in-chief at Halifax from 1776-1780.

The Building: From the Halifax Reporter, 1871: "The interior ... has almost a cathedral appearance. In form and style there is nothing like it in Nova Scotia." From the Canadian Illustrated News, 1873: "...one of the most handsome specimens of Gothic architecture to be met in the Dominion." Opened in 1871, the Scottish architect, David Stirling, made skilful use of Gothic designs with more than a dozen window shapes and sizes and numerous versions of decorative window tracery. Inside there are richly-carved ceiling braces supported by hammer-beams, ornamental kings' heads and bands of trefoil arches punctuated by protruding, small winged creatures which gaze down into the nave below. The church hall with gymnasium was added in 1898, and is shared with numerous community and faith groups.

The Organ: The three manual Casavant organ, installed in 1913, was played by television's first lady of the organ, Diane Bish (Joy of Music) to a full house; and each October the local chapter of the Royal Canadian College of Organists (RCCO) brings together organists and musical guests for an evening of 'frighteningly fine music' at the Phantoms of the Pipes concert!

The People: Fort Massey, along with the majority of Presbyterian churches, joined the Methodists and Congregationalists in the union of The United Church of Canada in 1925. Over the years many notable Haligonians have been affiliated with Fort Massey including Lucy Maud Montgomery (author of Anne of Green Gables), Anna Leonowens (Governess to the King of Siam's children – The King and I musical), and Nova Scotia's reformer Joseph Howe (Premier & Lt. Gov.). Some of the original subscribers included politicians such as Hiram Blanchard, Premier of Nova Scotia in 1867; William Garvie, Member of the Legislative Assembly (MLA) and Commissioner of Public Works; and Sir Robert Boak, President of the Legislative Council and Provincial Treasurer. Other noted subscribers included merchant William Robertson, proprietor of Robertson's Hardware (now part of the Maritime Museum of the Atlantic) and President of the Union Bank; Andrew Muir, who had fought at the Battle of Trafalgar; and Captain J. Taylor Wood, grandson of American President Zachary Taylor.

Today, the congregation consists of long-time south-enders, students, seniors, young families, and new residents who live in the neighbouring buildings, as well as people from throughout the HRM, from Lower Sackville to Eastern Passage. We strive to be a welcoming oasis in the midst of city living.

Welcome to Fort Massey. We extend a special welcome to those who are single, married, divorced, widowed, straight, gay, confused, well-heeled or down at heel. We especially welcome wailing babies and excited toddlers. We welcome you whether you can sing like Pavarotti or just growl quietly to yourself. You're welcome here if you're 'just browsing,' just woken up or just got out of prison. We don't care if you're more Christian than the Moderator of the United Church of Canada, or haven't been to church since Christmas ten years ago. We extend a special welcome to those who are over 60 but not grown up yet, and to teenagers who are growing up too fast. We welcome keep-fit mums, hockey dads, starving artists, tree-huggers, latte-sippers, vegetarians, junk-food eaters. We welcome those who are in recovery or still addicted. We welcome you if you're having problems, are down in the dumps or don't like 'organized religion.' (We're not that keen on it either!) We offer a welcome to those who think the earth is flat, work too hard, don't work, can't spell, or are here because granny is visiting and wanted to come to the ol' Kirk. We welcome those who are inked, pierced, both or neither. We offer a special welcome to those who could use a prayer right now, had religion shoved down their throat as kids or got lost on the Armdale roundabout and wound up here by mistake. We welcome pilgrims, tourists, seekers, doubters... and you! (adapted, used with permission, Coventry Cathedral, England)

REFRAIN: Holy Spirit, come into our lives.
Holy Spirit , make us truly wise.

MV 6

1 Give us a spirit of wisdom, an understanding heart.
Give us a spirit of knowledge, and lead us to the truth.

Holy Spirit, come into our lives.
Holy Spirit , make us truly wise.

2 Give us a spirit of courage, and judgement that is wise.
Give us a spirit of rev'rence, of wonder and of awe.

Holy Spirit, come into our lives.
Holy Spirit , make us truly wise.

6 Spirit of strength and of healing,
bend stubborn hearts and will.
Spirit of trust and of caring,
O melt us, warm our chill.

Holy Spirit, come into our lives.
Holy Spirit , make us truly wise.

- 1      Come, O Spirit, dwell among us,
         come with pentecostal power;
give the church a stronger vision,
         help us face each crucial hour.
Built upon a firm foundation,
         Jesus Christ, the cornerstone,
still the church is called to mission
         that God's love shall be made known.
- 2      We would raise our hallelujahs
         for the grace of yesteryears;
for tomorrow's unknown pathway,
         hear, O God, our humble prayers.
In the church's pilgrim journey
         you have led us all the way,
still in presence move before us,
         fire by night and cloud by day.
- 3      Come, O Spirit, dwell among us,
         give us words of fire and flame.
Help our feeble lips to praise you,
         glorify your holy name.
God, all holy, Son and Spirit,
         three in one: what mystery!
We would sing our loud hosannas
         now and through eternity.
