Fort Massey's difficult search for a new minister continued into October 1892. We read in the Morning Chronicle, "A meeting of Fort Massey Presbyterian congregation was held last night [12 October] at the close of the prayer meeting, to consider the question of calling a pastor. There was a good deal of discussion of a general character, and finally two names were proposed — Rev. R. E. Knowles and Rev. C. B. Pitblado [formerly minister of Chalmers, Halifax]. On a vote being taken, a small majority appeared for the former. Less than half of the enrolled membership of the congregation, however, voted. The elders refrained from voting, not wishing to influence the members in any way. It was resolved to ask presbytery to grant moderation in a call and Rev. Dr Currie, moderator of the session, and Rev. Dr Forrest were appointed commissioners to presbytery for that purpose."

Postlude

Blessings and our best wishes to all who are celebrating birthdays, anniversaries or other milestones this week. Likewise, if you're walking through some difficulty this week: grief, anxiety, challenge, we hold you in prayer.

A special welcome to all who are worshipping here for the first time. We strive to notice you and make you feel welcome. Do let us know if we fall short of our aspiration. We know that stepping into a new church can be daunting. If, after you leave, you find questions, curiosities, or insights arising, you are most welcome to reach out to our minister Rev. Beth (minister@fortmasseychurch.com).

Please feel comfortable to sit, stand, stretch, move for your own self-care and comfort. Our services are generally an hour in length. When the Postlude begins, please feel free to get up and chat. We offer a pretty great coffee hour. Following the service, make your way to the front of the church and down the stairs and you'll be greeted by warm hospitality and terrific snacks!

Why do we encourage name tags be worn?

In a spirit of radical welcome, we encourage everybody to wear a name tag today. Name tags help us recognize and remember each other.

They are a small gesture appreciated by those learning many names at once; those who are deaf or hard of hearing; or those who struggle to match names with faces.

If you are comfortable doing so, consider adding your pronouns. Sharing pronouns is a signal that we welcome those of all genders and we appreciate knowing how to speak of each other respectfully.

Guest Preacher

We are delighted to welcome Rev. Dr. Rob Fennell as our guest preacher today. Dr. Fennell is Associate Professor of Historical and Systematic Theology at the Atlantic School of Theology. He hails from Winnipeg, is a graduate of Emmanuel College, (MDiv), and, University of St. Andrews, (MLitt), and the University of Toronto, (ThD). Rob's research interests include pilgrimage, hermeneutics, the Holy Spirit, C.S. Lewis, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, evangelism, congregational vitality, leadership, and The United Church of Canada. He is founding director of Camino Nova Scotia, AST's social enterprise-based summer pilgrimage program. Prior to serving with AST, he served as a minister with local congregations of The United Church of Canada.

Something New

During the Easter season (the 50 days following Easter Sunday) we will be experimenting with some new elements to our worship service. Here's what you can expect.

The Lord's Prayer: Each week we will speak together a different paraphrase of the Lord's Prayer. The beauty of the traditional translation lies in its familiarity, how the words roll off the tongue, how we can go into places of worship around the world and hear the familiarity of the same words spoken. Language is a powerful tool in shaping our minds and hearts. By interspersing contemporary translations with the traditional we can become aware of new insights, and our hearts can be opened in new ways. We might hear nuances in the prayer that otherwise would remain hidden. You are urged to pay attention to which paraphrases resonate with you, which ones make you bristle, which ones open new questions.

Silence: From time to time we will introduce more extended periods of silence and quiet reflection into the worship service. This might be woven in after the sermon or as part of our regular prayers, perhaps when we light the candle. So much of our lives is filled with words, with an outward focus. Silence holds the potential for us to hear the calling of God on our lives in ways that words cannot.

Fort Massey Vision Statement

At Fort Massey, we live into being a vibrant and evolving community where tradition is honoured, change is embraced, and injustice is challenged, where everyone is welcomed, needed, valued and belongs. Following Jesus' example of expansive love, we aim to provide a safe, nurturing environment where everyone is free to be themselves. We celebrate and encourage people of every age, health situation, race, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, family configuration, background, ability, interest, culture, economic circumstance and faith journey into the full participation and leadership of ministries in the life and work of Fort Massey United Church.

Welcome to Fort Massey. We extend a special welcome to those who are single, married, divorced, widowed, straight, gay, confused, well-heeled or down at heel. We especially welcome wailing babies and excited toddlers. We welcome you whether you can sing like Pavarotti or just growl quietly to yourself. You're welcome here if you're 'just browsing', just woken up or just got out of prison. We don't care if you're more Christian than the Moderator of the United Church of Canada or haven't been to church since Christmas ten years ago. We extend a special welcome to those who are over 60 but not grown up yet, and to teenagers who are growing up too fast. We welcome keep-fit mums, hockey dads, starving artists, tree-huggers, latte-sippers, vegetarians, junk-food eaters. We welcome those who are in recovery or still addicted. We welcome you if you're having problems, are down in the dumps or don't like 'organized religion.' (We're not that keen on it either!) We offer a welcome to those who think the earth is flat, work too hard, don't work, can't spell, or are here because granny is visiting and wanted to come to the ol' Kirk. We welcome those who are inked, pierced, both or neither. We offer a special welcome to those who could use a prayer right now, had religion shoved down their throat as kids or got lost on the Armdale roundabout and wound up here by mistake. We welcome pilgrims, tourists, seekers, doubters... and you! (adapted and used with permission, Coventry Cathedral, England)
